

COMP20030 Project

Nan Wu 18210184

This website is designed for a foreign language school business.

Header is used for all pages, logo on the left and different links on the right, linking Home, About, Courses, Contact and login pages.

Main page including a slogan and introduction for three language courses, including a link to each course's page.

About page is to give an introduction to this business and its team members.

Contact page has a form for users to submit their query, also some contact information including phone number and address shown by google map.

Courses page introduces three language courses, including a link to each course's page.

Three languages courses pages are to introduce some basic information about these courses. A link to login page is at below of each page.

Login page is asking users to enter their Username and password, then link to checkout page.

After login, checkout page will ask users to fill a form, including their basic information and courses' choice, the price of course will be calculated automatically by JavaScript.

After checkout form has been submitted, the user will be noticed.

Footer is used for all pages, states author's information.